listing Description

Being in a car accident is bad enough, but dealing with an auto body repair adds insult to injury. Not only are you forced to deal with insurance companies, you also have to find a collision repair shop that will get your vehicle back to its original condition. At Chaney's Collision Center, we eliminate the hassle associated with auto body repair so that you can go about your business while we get the job done. We will work directly with your automobile insurance company, which means all you have to do is drop off your vehicle and pick it up when the collision repair is done. We can even set you up with a rental car during the brief period of time we need to restore your vehicle to its like-new condition.
