listing Description

Digi Doc is a healthcare podcast and digital platform that educates audiences on medical topics. Hosted by Aishwarya Chavan and powered by Social Sigma, Digi Doc features expert doctors discussing treatments, diseases, and wellness. We also create informative articles and blogs covering a wide range of health topics, including skincare, cancer, gynecology, fertility, ophthalmology, haircare, cardiology, neurology, orthopedics, dermatology, urology, mental health, pediatric care, nutrition, weight management, and many more, simplifying complex medical insights for an informed audience.
