listing Description

DRS Music, based in Chicago, has been a premier choice for live music entertainment for over 25 years. Founded by David Rothstein, the company specializes in providing a personal and customized musical experience for weddings and special events. Unlike other bands with standard setlists, DRS Music tailors the music to fit the unique style and preferences of each client, even learning new songs upon request. Their talented and versatile musicians can perform a wide range of genres, from classic Sinatra to contemporary Top 40 hits, ensuring a packed dance floor and an unforgettable event.
